Principal's Message

Dear Willow Families,

Happy Friday! Today marks the end of 3rd Quarter! It is hard to believe how fast this school year has gone! When we arrive back on April 1st, it will be Quarter 4!

I hope everyone has a safe and enjoyable Spring Break! If you have not done so already, please consider taking the 5Essentials survey. This survey provides us valuable feedback and helps our school grow

<https://survey.5-essentials.org/illinois/>

Thank you for your time and continued support!

Sincerely,

Dr. Alexandra Oreluk

Math

We will continue Topic 7 this week which focuses on equal shares and time. This week, students will represent partitioning by drawing partition lines on circles, rectangles, and squares. Students will also learn that partitioning a whole into more pieces results in smaller pieces. At the end of the week, we will begin to investigate time and events.

Updates & Reminders

*Upon returning from Spring Break, we will be working to re-establish school expectations and procedures. Helping your child reflect on their day will help encourage expected behavior. Ask your child, "Can you tell me an example of kindness you saw/showed? Were you helpful to anyone today? What made you smile today? Is there a school rule that you want to improve tomorrow? What made you proud today?"

*Report Cards will go home on Friday, April 5.

6th Grade

Ghost

After we return from break students will begin their new novel Ghost by Jason Reynolds. Students will work to study this novel together and learn what it means to persevere and work towards our goals. This theme of perseverance will also play a role when students take their ELA IAR tests on April 9th and 10th. This test will measure students achievement in their reading and writing skills according to their grade level. These are skills that we have been working on all year.

Dry

When we return from Spring Break, students will start reading their new novel, Dry by Neal and Jarrod Shusterman. In this novel, the California drought escalates to catastrophic proportions, and one teen is forced to make life and death decisions for her family in this harrowing story of survival. Students will take the ELA IAR test on April 9th and 10th. This test measures students achievement in their reading and writing skills. Please encourage your student to continue to read over the break.

8th Grade

Students began their new novel study of Night, by Elie Wiesel. Students were tested before Spring Break on Section 1 of the book. This test included characterization and writing a short essay about the theme of delusion, which we book noted throughout the section.

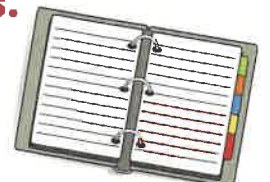

We will continue to work through sections 2 and 3 when we return from Spring Break. Due to IAR testing beginning on April 9th, we will not test over sections 2 and 3. Students will take their ELA IAR tests on April 9th and 10th. This test will measure students achievement in their reading and writing skills according to their grade level. These are skills that we have been working on all year.
